

Visuals on the Go

Definition:

A visual support that is readily available and can be utilized across environments to support positive behaviors and understanding expectations.

Purpose:

Helps with:

- Understanding language
- Reducing anxiety
- Supporting positive behaviors
- Following directions
- Promote appropriate positive ways to communicate

Types of Schedules:

- hallway expectations
- group time expectations
- social language expectations

Resources:

- <https://www.etsy.com/no-en/listing/1209505681/rainbow-tiered-lanyard-visuals-20>
- <https://positivelylearningblog.com/visuals-special-education/>

Examples:

